Art Music Design Barossa: 2019 Digital Residencies Program

Art Music Design Barossa is pleased to announce the launch of its digital residencies program, supported by the Barossa Council. Up to five artists will be offered a residency across our online platforms. Artists of any medium are welcome to apply: we actively seek a diverse range of art forms.

A digital residency will include:

- The creation of one piece of new social content. This could be anything – a video Q&A, a short piece of poetry, an image or anything else: be creative.
- The provision of one existing piece of content. This might be an image of a previous work, links to recordings, a piece of writing already published online.
- A short piece of new writing for the Art Music Design website. There are no limits to what this piece of writing might include and no stipulations on length. You might write about your art making, an experience you've had as an artist, or something completely different. Creative writing ideas are encouraged.

A fee of $700 will be paid to successful applicants. Content will be shared across our social and online channels, which have a combined audience reach of over 10,000 people.

Artists with a strong connection to the Barossa region encouraged to apply. Artists from anywhere in Australia are eligible.

How to apply:

We aim to make this application process as simple as possible. To apply please email Leah Blankendaal, leah@barossa.org.au, with the following information.
